

BRONWYN WALLACE - INTRODUCTION

'Life is like a box of chocolates, you never know what you are going to get...' wise words from Forrest Gump's Mother. In business it's no different. We don't know what's around the corner. However, it's not what happens to us, it's how we choose to handle what happens.

Thirteen years in the travel and tourism industry certainly gave Bronwyn the expertise that constant change brings with it. When she began her own business in 1997, the focus was on assisting small businesses in writing and implementing their own business plans. She quickly realised that the successful implementation of these plans and in fact any new strategy or change, was dependant on people's understanding of their own and other's individual behaviours and how they related to the plan, strategy or change.

Today she specialises in assisting individuals, teams and businesses improve their communication and time management skills.
